Monday, June 17. 1706.

From the Paris Gazette, dated June 19.

Rome, May 25.

SIgnior Gabriel Philippucci perſiſting in the Reſolution he declar'd at firſt to have taken to refuſe the Cardinalſhip, and there being few Examples of ſo edifying a humility, ſome Difficulties have occurr'd touching the Manner in which his Renunciation ſhould be receiv'd, and 'twas even made a Queſtion whether it ought to be accepted. To Day a Congregation was held on this Subject, in the Palace of Cardinal Acciaioli, where beſides himſelf, were the Cardinals Carpegna, Marſcotti, Spada, Colloredo, Panciatichi, Ferrari, Sacripante, Spinola, Paulucci, Sperelli, Pamphilio, and Othoboni. The Queſtion was put whether Signior Philippucci was a Cardinal, by the Nomination only which the Pope had made of him in the Conſiſtory the 17th. The Opinions were divided; but the Majority judg'd he was not, becauſe he had not given his Conſent, tho' he had an unqueſtionable Right to that Dignity if he would accept it. Then the Queſtion was put, whether he ſhould be conſtrain'd to take it, and 'twas unanimouſly agreed he ought not. In Concluſion it was reſolv'd, that his Renunciation ſhould be brought into a Conſiſtory by the Maſter of the Ceremonies, that it ſhould be read publickly there, and that the Pope ſhould accept it. Signior Philippucci has reſolv'd to retire to Macerata the Place of his Nativity, into a Convent, there to end quietly his Days in Prayer and Solitude. Cardinal Janſon ſet out the 18th Inſtant for Florence, thence to go to Lerice, to embark on a Galley of the Republick of Genoa, which is to carry him to Marſeilles.

Vienna, June 9. On Sunday laſt their Imperial Majeſty's went in great State attended by the whole Court to the Cathedral of St. Stephen, where Te Deum was ſolemnly ſung to Muſick, in Thanksgiving for the raiſing of the Siege of Barcelona, and for the Progreſs of the Arms of the high Allies in Spain in Favour of King Charles III. And a Sermon was preach'd by Father Claudius Sics, who took for his Text the firſt part of the 24th Verſe of the 2d Chapter of the 1ſt Book of Kings, viz. Now therefore as the Lord liveth, which hath eſtabliſh'd me, and ſet me on the Throne of David my Father. In the Evening the Palace, and all the Houſes in the City were illuminated; and there was great Feaſting and Rejoycing, without any Diſorder, except that the Rabble broke the Windows of the Auditor of the Pope's Nuncio, becauſe Candles were not ſtuck up in them as in others. The next Day the Marquis del Vaſto, Ambaſſador of Spain, caus'd Te Deum to be ſung on the ſame Account, in the Church of the barefooted Spaniſh Fathers of the Order of the Trinity, and at Night he gave a magnificent Entertainment to all the Lords and Ladies of the Court, who were dreſs'd in Spaniſh Habits. The Emperor has made Count Keſſler, who brought this happy News, and was but 13 Days coming from Barcelona hither, a Gentleman of his Bed-Chamber. On Sunday next Te Deum will be ſung, and Rejoycings made, for the Signal Victory obtain'd by the Allies over the French the 23d of laſt Month in Brabant, and for the great Progreſs they have made ſince. We have Advice from the Kingdom of Naples, that the People long for the Confederate Fleet to come thither, that they may give Proofs of their Loyalty and Affection for their lawful King Charles III.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated June 22.

Paris, June 17. All the Advices from the Sea Ports, ſpeak of the Preparations made in England for a Deſcent; and it being apprehended it will be on our Coaſts, the Officers that command the Militia, who are in Motion, are by his Majeſty's expreſs Order gone to their ſeveral Poſts. Yeſterday arriv'd a Courier from the Duke of Vendome with Advice, that Prince Eugene with all his Forces was drawn near to the Adige; but that our Army was in a Condition to make Head againſt the Enemy, and diſpute their Paſſing that River. A Servant of Monſieur des Ailleurs, (the King's Envoy with Prince Ragotski,) who ſome Days ago arriv'd at Court, is gone back for Hungary with new Inſtructions for his Maſter. They write from Marſeilles, that the 9th Inſtant 2 of our Ships of War, put to Sea from thence to carry a new Ambaſſador to Conſtantinople.

Hague, June 22. 'The States of Holland are ſeparated. In their laſt Aſſembly 'tis thought they 'had ſome Debates in Private touching the Election 'of a Biſhop of Munſter; for 'tis of Conſequence to 'this State to have a Perſon in that Biſhoprick that 'will not be ſo turbulent a Neighbour as was formerly Biſhop Bernard van Galen. 'Tis not known 'yet who it is that this State deſire ſhould be 'choſen. M. Itterſum Deputy of the Province of 'Over-Iſſel, is ſaid to have a ſecret Commiſſion to 'go to Munſter, to obſerve this Election. Beſides 'ſome of the Cannons, the 2 Candidates of greateſt 'Figure are the Biſhop of Oſnabrug, Brother of the 'Duke of Lorrain, and the Great Maſter of the 'Teutonick Order, Brother of the Elector Palatine. 'Many are of Opinion it would be better the E'lection ſhould fall on the Biſhop of Oſnabrug than 'on the Great Maſter; or even upon one of the 'ordinary Cannons rather than on either of thoſe 'Princes. The Republick of Venice finding their 'Subjects to be much oppreſs'd by the foreign 'Armies that are in their Territories, have caus'd a

'Declaration

Declaration to be made, not only to the Courts of Vienna and France which are the Parties immediately concern'd, but likewise to others; importing, That they will peremptorily signify to the 2 Armies that they should march out of their Territories; which if they refuse to do, they will joyn with one Army to drive out the other. Now 'tis evident, that should the Germans be driven up into their Mountains, the French would continue still in the Territories of the Republick, to keep them from coming down agen; whereas should the French be driven out, the Imperialists would take Quarters in the Mantuan, the Milaneze, or other Parts. Some are of Opinion that the Venetians knowing how Affairs go in Spain and the Netherlands, will determine which Party to side with, assoon as the Troops of Hesse-Cassel arrive in Lombardy.

Whereas Proposals for Reprinting all the Practical Works of the late Reverend Mr. Richard Baxter, in 4 Volumes in Folio, have for some Time been Publish'd, the Undertakers having receiv'd incouragement from several Reverend Divines and others, of the Church of England, and Dissenters; intend, God willing, forthwith to put the said Work to the Press, and therefore desire all such as have obtain'd Subscriptions, and not yet paid in the first Payment, or who are inclin'd to promote so good a Work, to hasten the doing of it, to any of the Undertakers, Tho. Parkhurst, Jonathan Robinson or John Lawrence, that they may be enabled to know what Number to print, and thereby prevent the Common Abuse to Subscribers, and keep up the price of the said Book, they intending as near as possible to print such Number only as shall be subscrib'd for.

The Grand Cephalick or Head-Snuff, approved by the most eminent Physicians in London, to be the only sort capable of curing all the Distempers of the Head and Brain, and often prescribed by them as such in the most stubborn and dangerous Cases, as Apoplexies, Epilepsies, Lethargies, Vertigoes, Megrim, Pains in the Head, Vapours, Impostumes, loss of Memory, Deafness, Sore Eyes, &c. two Papers at most times making a perfect Cure, 'tis a peculiar Composition different from all other Snuffs, and different in its Operation and Effects, twice or thrice using it, doing infinitely more real good, than 50 times using any other sort, as will manifestly, appear to all that shall try it, and may possibly retrieve Life in Apoplexies and other violent Distempers of the Head, when other sorts shall be only the Introducers of Ruin and Death, this being to be used Medicinally, as there is occasion, not immoderately and for fashion sake, as the Snuff-takers do their Spanish and other pernicious Snuffs in vogue; the dangerous Consequences of which Practice being at large observed in the printed Directions. 'Tis to be had only (by the Author's appointment) at Mr. Varenne's a Bookseller at Seneca's Head near Somerset-House in the Strand. Price 1 s. 6 d. per Paper.

The Royal Chymical Wash-Ball for the Hands and Face, largely experienc'd and daily commended by all that use them; and that for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be parallell'd by either Wash, Powder, Cosmetick, &c. it be-indeed a real Beautifier of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetters, Ring-worms, Morphew, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits or Redness of the Small-pox, &c. keeping it of a lasting and extream Whiteness, it soon alters red or rough Hands; and is admirable in Shaving the Head, which not only gives a more exquisite sharpness to the Razor, but so comforts the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catch-Cold; and is of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury. Is sold only by Mr. Allnutt, Glover, the corner of Popes-Head-Alley against the Royal Exchange, and at Mrs. Giles's, Millener and Toyshop next Hercules-Pillar-Ally by the Temple, at 1 s. each, with printed Directions at large.
